

THE DAILY SENTINEL.
PUBLISHED BY J. H. LEAVY, at the Office of the Editor, No. 100 North Second Street, between the Second and Third Streets, in the City of Milwaukee, Wis., on Wednesday, April 24, 1857.

FROM GREEN BAY.—The Green Bay, a schooner, arrived from Green Bay, on Saturday last, at 10 o'clock. She was from the Green Bay, and was loaded with lumber. The cargo was all sold to the Green Bay, and the schooner was to be sold to the Green Bay.

FROM GREEN BAY.—The Green Bay, a schooner, arrived from Green Bay, on Saturday last, at 10 o'clock. She was from the Green Bay, and was loaded with lumber. The cargo was all sold to the Green Bay, and the schooner was to be sold to the Green Bay.

FROM GREEN BAY.—The Green Bay, a schooner, arrived from Green Bay, on Saturday last, at 10 o'clock. She was from the Green Bay, and was loaded with lumber. The cargo was all sold to the Green Bay, and the schooner was to be sold to the Green Bay.

FROM GREEN BAY.—The Green Bay, a schooner, arrived from Green Bay, on Saturday last, at 10 o'clock. She was from the Green Bay, and was loaded with lumber. The cargo was all sold to the Green Bay, and the schooner was to be sold to the Green Bay.

FROM GREEN BAY.—The Green Bay, a schooner, arrived from Green Bay, on Saturday last, at 10 o'clock. She was from the Green Bay, and was loaded with lumber. The cargo was all sold to the Green Bay, and the schooner was to be sold to the Green Bay.

FROM GREEN BAY.—The Green Bay, a schooner, arrived from Green Bay, on Saturday last, at 10 o'clock. She was from the Green Bay, and was loaded with lumber. The cargo was all sold to the Green Bay, and the schooner was to be sold to the Green Bay.

FROM GREEN BAY.—The Green Bay, a schooner, arrived from Green Bay, on Saturday last, at 10 o'clock. She was from the Green Bay, and was loaded with lumber. The cargo was all sold to the Green Bay, and the schooner was to be sold to the Green Bay.

FROM GREEN BAY.—The Green Bay, a schooner, arrived from Green Bay, on Saturday last, at 10 o'clock. She was from the Green Bay, and was loaded with lumber. The cargo was all sold to the Green Bay, and the schooner was to be sold to the Green Bay.

FROM GREEN BAY.—The Green Bay, a schooner, arrived from Green Bay, on Saturday last, at 10 o'clock. She was from the Green Bay, and was loaded with lumber. The cargo was all sold to the Green Bay, and the schooner was to be sold to the Green Bay.

Emancipation in Missouri.
It is worthy of remark that while the Republic papers everywhere are jubilant over the victory in St. Louis, not one of the democratic papers, that have seen, seems to regard the result with regret. So much for the sincerity of men who constantly tell us that "they are as much opposed to slavery as we are," &c., &c. How the opponents of Mr. Winzer and the emancipation ticket in St. Louis regard their own defeat, let the following from the Intelligencer, the organ of the Know Nothing party, tell:

Emancipation in Missouri.
It is worthy of remark that while the Republic papers everywhere are jubilant over the victory in St. Louis, not one of the democratic papers, that have seen, seems to regard the result with regret. So much for the sincerity of men who constantly tell us that "they are as much opposed to slavery as we are," &c., &c. How the opponents of Mr. Winzer and the emancipation ticket in St. Louis regard their own defeat, let the following from the Intelligencer, the organ of the Know Nothing party, tell:

Emancipation in Missouri.
It is worthy of remark that while the Republic papers everywhere are jubilant over the victory in St. Louis, not one of the democratic papers, that have seen, seems to regard the result with regret. So much for the sincerity of men who constantly tell us that "they are as much opposed to slavery as we are," &c., &c. How the opponents of Mr. Winzer and the emancipation ticket in St. Louis regard their own defeat, let the following from the Intelligencer, the organ of the Know Nothing party, tell:

Emancipation in Missouri.
It is worthy of remark that while the Republic papers everywhere are jubilant over the victory in St. Louis, not one of the democratic papers, that have seen, seems to regard the result with regret. So much for the sincerity of men who constantly tell us that "they are as much opposed to slavery as we are," &c., &c. How the opponents of Mr. Winzer and the emancipation ticket in St. Louis regard their own defeat, let the following from the Intelligencer, the organ of the Know Nothing party, tell:

Emancipation in Missouri.
It is worthy of remark that while the Republic papers everywhere are jubilant over the victory in St. Louis, not one of the democratic papers, that have seen, seems to regard the result with regret. So much for the sincerity of men who constantly tell us that "they are as much opposed to slavery as we are," &c., &c. How the opponents of Mr. Winzer and the emancipation ticket in St. Louis regard their own defeat, let the following from the Intelligencer, the organ of the Know Nothing party, tell:

Emancipation in Missouri.
It is worthy of remark that while the Republic papers everywhere are jubilant over the victory in St. Louis, not one of the democratic papers, that have seen, seems to regard the result with regret. So much for the sincerity of men who constantly tell us that "they are as much opposed to slavery as we are," &c., &c. How the opponents of Mr. Winzer and the emancipation ticket in St. Louis regard their own defeat, let the following from the Intelligencer, the organ of the Know Nothing party, tell:

Emancipation in Missouri.
It is worthy of remark that while the Republic papers everywhere are jubilant over the victory in St. Louis, not one of the democratic papers, that have seen, seems to regard the result with regret. So much for the sincerity of men who constantly tell us that "they are as much opposed to slavery as we are," &c., &c. How the opponents of Mr. Winzer and the emancipation ticket in St. Louis regard their own defeat, let the following from the Intelligencer, the organ of the Know Nothing party, tell:

Emancipation in Missouri.
It is worthy of remark that while the Republic papers everywhere are jubilant over the victory in St. Louis, not one of the democratic papers, that have seen, seems to regard the result with regret. So much for the sincerity of men who constantly tell us that "they are as much opposed to slavery as we are," &c., &c. How the opponents of Mr. Winzer and the emancipation ticket in St. Louis regard their own defeat, let the following from the Intelligencer, the organ of the Know Nothing party, tell:

Emancipation in Missouri.
It is worthy of remark that while the Republic papers everywhere are jubilant over the victory in St. Louis, not one of the democratic papers, that have seen, seems to regard the result with regret. So much for the sincerity of men who constantly tell us that "they are as much opposed to slavery as we are," &c., &c. How the opponents of Mr. Winzer and the emancipation ticket in St. Louis regard their own defeat, let the following from the Intelligencer, the organ of the Know Nothing party, tell:

SPECIAL NOTICES.
Real Estate Agency.
J. S. FILLMORE, REAL ESTATE AGENT, 248 EAST WATER STREET, OPPOSITE WALKER'S BOARDING HOUSE.

SPECIAL NOTICES.
Clothing.
MAGIE & SWAIN, CITY CASH TAILORING HOUSE!
NOW-A-DAYS IT IS ASSERTED THAT CLOTHES MAKE THE MAN.

SPECIAL NOTICES.
Real Estate Agency.
J. S. FILLMORE, REAL ESTATE AGENT, 248 EAST WATER STREET, OPPOSITE WALKER'S BOARDING HOUSE.

SPECIAL NOTICES.
Real Estate Agency.
J. S. FILLMORE, REAL ESTATE AGENT, 248 EAST WATER STREET, OPPOSITE WALKER'S BOARDING HOUSE.

SPECIAL NOTICES.
Real Estate Agency.
J. S. FILLMORE, REAL ESTATE AGENT, 248 EAST WATER STREET, OPPOSITE WALKER'S BOARDING HOUSE.

SPECIAL NOTICES.
Real Estate Agency.
J. S. FILLMORE, REAL ESTATE AGENT, 248 EAST WATER STREET, OPPOSITE WALKER'S BOARDING HOUSE.

SPECIAL NOTICES.
Real Estate Agency.
J. S. FILLMORE, REAL ESTATE AGENT, 248 EAST WATER STREET, OPPOSITE WALKER'S BOARDING HOUSE.

